Southern California Forum for Diversity in Graduate Education

October 27, 2018 | University of San Diego

What is the Forum?

The Forum is an all-day event designed for students from underrepresented and underserved groups to explore the academic and career opportunities associated with advanced study in a wide range of disciplines.

In addition, students will have the opportunity to meet representatives of the nation’s leading graduate schools offering Master’s and Ph.D. degrees and to attend workshops & panel sessions. More than 100 leading graduate institutions and over 150 representatives have already reserved tables for the event.

* Please note that this forum is not primarily designed for students interested in obtaining a medical, dental, pharmacology or law degree.

Workshops will cover:

- Preparing for the GRE
- Selecting and Applying to Graduate School
- Financing your Graduate Education
- Writing a Winning Statement of Purpose
- Undergraduate Research Opportunities
- Managing your Health, Wellness & Disability in Graduate School
- Keys to Success & Survival in Graduate School
- The Relation of the Master’s Degree to the Ph.D.
- Identifying Pathways for AB540 & Undocumented Students in Graduate School
