

TELL US ABOUT YOUR LOVE LIFE

A research project on emerging adults' love life stories is being conducted by Professor Jasna Jovanovic in the Department of Psychology and Child Development at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo. We are looking for students who are willing to share the story of their love life and explore how this story might shape who they are.

This study involves participating in an interview where you will describe your Love Life Story to this point in time. By love life we mean the range of romantic and sexual interactions, both committed and non-committed that make up the story of your love life. Your participation will take approximately one hour. Interviews are conducted on Zoom and will be audio-recorded so that we can go back and analyze the themes that emerge from the stories we collect. You can keep your camera off and change your zoom name. Your responses will be protected and kept confidential to ensure your privacy.

If you are willing to share your love life story, please sign up for a time slot via the Calendly. We will get back to you with a confirmation that will include a Zoom link. You must be 18 years or older to participate.

Questions? Please feel free to contact Professor Jasna Jovanovic at jjovanov@calpoly.edu
