Dr. Marjorie Rhodes is seeking a full-time Junior Laboratory Associate to coordinate research on conceptual development and the development of social cognition. Information about the lab’s research is available at: http://kidconcepts.org/ and https://discoveriesinaction.org.

Job duties include:

- Coordinating research in museum-based and school-based settings, including communicating and working with school and museum personnel, working on public outreach efforts with these community partners, training and supervising research assistants to conduct research in community-based settings, maintaining quality control over research activities in multiple offsite locations, coordinating the scheduling of research sessions across multiple sites
- Recruiting families to participate in research and conducting data collection sessions with children and their families
- Maintaining data management and processing systems, including providing training and supervision on these systems
- Contributing to general lab administration and organization, including IRB applications and grant reports
- Contributing to research in the lab, including collaborating with other researchers in the lab on study design, protocol development, analyses, and research dissemination

Qualifications

Applicants should have:
- A bachelor’s degree in psychology or cognitive science
- One or more years of research experience, preferably including recruitment and data collection
- The ability to work independently and to collaborate on teams
- Keen attention to detail
- Excellent communication and public relations skills
- Strong organizational, managerial, and problem-solving skills
- Experience with R, Datavyu, and Databrary are highly desirable

Application Instructions

Apply via Interfolio https://apply.interfolio.com/73791 with the following documents:
- A cover letter describing your research experience, relevant skills, and career goals
- A current resume/CV
- An unofficial college transcript
- Contact information for two references who are willing to promptly provide letters of recommendation on your behalf

For best consideration, please apply by February 14, 2020. Summer 2020 start date preferred. The initial appointment is for one year, with possibility of renewal.

Equal Employment Opportunity Statement

For people in the EU, click here for information on your privacy rights under GDPR: www.nyu.edu/it/gdpr

New York University is an Equal Opportunity Employer. New York University is committed to a policy of equal treatment and opportunity in every aspect of its hiring and promotion process without regard to race, color, creed, religion, sex, pregnancy or childbirth (or related medical condition), sexual orientation, partnership status, gender and/or gender identity or expression, marital, parental or familial status, caregiver status, national origin, ethnicity, alienage or citizenship status, veteran or military status, age, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, domestic violence victim status, unemployment status, or any other legally protected basis. Women, racial and ethnic minorities, persons of minority sexual orientation or gender identity, individuals with disabilities, and veterans are encouraged to apply for vacant positions at all levels.

Sustainability Statement
NYU aims to be among the greenest urban campuses in the country and carbon neutral by 2040. Learn more at nyu.edu/sustainability