Allyship
All different social causes need allies as well as support. Become an ally to groups experiencing discrimination and oppression.

Education
Education is a tool to understand our past, present, and differences. There will be a range of subjects from culture to emotional needs.

White Privilege
White privilege is extremely prevalent in the United States. Gain knowledge on how to recognize your own privilege and act responsibly.

Leadership
It is important to understand our differences in order to become an effective leader. Learn how to be part of a team, be responsible, and care for everyone involved.

Restorative Justice
The incarceration system currently in place has social, racial, and psychological consequences. Restorative justice offers proactive reform for the criminal justice system.

Environment
Learn how people on campus are working to protect the environment, and how you can get involved. Environmental issues affect all of us.

Gender & Sexuality
These presentations offer opportunities to dive into contemporary issues regarding gender and sexuality. Receive information from professionals on how to understand this topic.

Culture
Learn about cultural differences regarding death, religion, and language. Leave with an understanding of how culture defines many aspects of your life.

Activism
There are many activist groups that need support on and off campus. Social activism is a very powerful for shaping the future.

Chill Space
UU 216 will be a ‘chill space’ to allow any conference attendees to utilize for reflection.
