SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND SOCIETY

WEEKLY NEWS 10/14

NOTE FROM DR. KIRBY

We are now moving towards the middle of the Fall quarter. Which has been something said every year at Cal Poly for the last 100 or so years. But next year we will be talking about this time of year differently. I will probably be saying something like “We are still in the early parts of the semester.” That is a pretty historic change for the university. For students this means that it is your last (and for some of you your first) time learning under the quarter system. So, I encourage you to enjoy this final time under quarters (even if you are actually looking forward to semesters). It’s always worth pausing to notice when changes like this occur.

If you have any news or events that you would like to share with your fellow STS minors then please let us know at sts@calpoly.edu.

My office hours this quarter will be Tu 1-3PM and Th 1-3PM. You can drop by my office (note my new office: 52-D4) at these times or you can contact me via Zoom using this link: 6247671135. As always, I am also happy to set up other meeting times if you are not able to make these office hours. Just send me an email and we can arrange a day/time.

 MEET KEELY - YOUR ISLA/STS STUDENT ASSISTANT!

Hi everyone! I'm Keely, a fourth year ISLA major/STS minor. I am also the ISLA student assistant!

I create these newsletters, run our ISLA & STS social media, and support events throughout the quarter. I'm also here as a resource for you — whether you have questions about your STS minor, need help navigating course selection, or want to get more involved in the STS community.

✉ My contact information: kfrobert@calpoly.edu

I'd love to hear from you — don't hesitate to reach out, connect, or say hi around campus.

STUDENT SUCCESSES

A CAL POLY MUSTANG FILM SOCIETY PRODUCTION

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT: NATALIE VENABLE AT THE PORTLAND FILM FESTIVAL

Big congratulations to Natalie Venable, director of the short film Sticky, which was featured at the Portland Film Festival this fall! 🌟

Sticky was produced by the Mustang Film Society, showcasing the creativity and talent of Cal Poly students in film and storytelling. Natalie represented the film at the festival — way to go!

STS - RELATED CLUBS

MUSTANG FILM SOCIETY

Mustang Film Society is a new club on campus aimed at fostering a community around film and providing students interested in film with opportunities to connect to others in the film industry and explore their interests! This may be of interest to any MAST minor students.

If interested, please contact Dr. Emily Ryalls at erylalls@calpoly.edu or follow the Instagram @mustangfilmsociety

GILEAD SPEAKER SERIES ON HEALTHY AND SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITIES

Repairing What's Broken

From Toxic E-Waste to Sustainable Futures

PETER C. LITTLE AND LIZ CHAMBERLAIN

OCT. 23

11:10 a.m.-Noon

Building 180, Room 101

Peter C. Little is a professor of anthropology at Rhode Island College and author of Toxic Town: IBM, Pollution, and Industrial Risks (2014), Burning Matters: Life, Labor, and E-Waste Pyropolitics in Ghana (2022), and Critical Zones of Technopower and Global Political Ecology: Platforms, Pathologies, and Plunder (2023). Peter is also the President of the Northeastern Anthropological Association (NEAA).

Liz Chamberlain is Director of Sustainability at iFixit (and former professor of rhetoric). She advocates for repair-friendly legislation around the world, testifying in statehouses, coordinating repair advocates, and developing reparability standards. Her writing on e-waste and repair has been featured in the Wall Street Journal and Wired, and she's spoken about repair on NPR, the BBC, and Vox.

Please join the NRES Department for this special talk followed by a Q&A session!

SUSTAINABILITY SPEAKER SERIES: THE GLOBAL E-WASTE TRADE & RIGHT TO REPAIR

Join us for the second installment of the NRES Department's Sustainability Speaker Series, organized by Dr. Seeta Sistla and Dr. Christina Kaviani, on Wednesday, October 23rd.

 Featuring:

- Peter Little (Anthropologist, Rhode Island College) — discussing the global e-waste trade and its impacts in West Africa.
- Liz Chamberlain (Sustainability Director, iFixit) — highlighting Right to Repair legislation and iFixit’s sustainability efforts.

This event will explore how technology, sustainability, and social justice intersect — a conversation relevant to all members of the Cal Poly community.

 Date: Wednesday, October 23

 Time: University Hour (11:10 AM – 12:00 PM)

 Location: Building 180, Room 101
