

Implementing our strategic plan will be a collaborative effort over the next three years. Following are the first priority deliverables to get us started during 2014-15:

Build a Culture of Excellence and Innovation	Sr. Sponsor	Owner	Committee
Expand the Student Affairs Assessment and Research infrastructure	O'Brien	Dir. Assessment	YES
Collaborate on the campus-wide Master Plan to include space needs for effective Student Affairs program delivery, including student spaces	Humphrey	Keith
Develop a progressive approach to campus dining that supports health and wellness needs for our entire campus community	Humphrey	Keith
Develop a comprehensive professional development curriculum for our division	Allen	Rinaldi	YES
Design and implement a consistent staff orientation and onboarding program with resource toolkits to be implemented for all Student Affairs departments/programs	Allen	Allen	YES
Collaborate with campus Information Technology Services (ITS) to design and execute technology solutions that address key business priorities for Student Affairs, including, information access/collection, events management, workplace support, communications, assessment and delivery of services	Eisengart	Salomon	YES
Engage Partners to Ensure our Future Success	Sr. Sponsor	Owner	Committee
Create a Student Affairs Advisory Council to help realize the vision of Student Affairs.	Eisengart	Lee	YES
Design and deliver commencement ceremonies to celebrate students' achievement and continue a meaningful bond with Cal Poly after graduation	O'Brien	Stevens	YES
Solidify the partnership with University Advancement around our shared contributions to improving parent relations and giving	O'Brien	Lee

Enhance Campus Life and Student Success	Sr. Sponsor	Owner	Committee
Bolster efforts around student care management to include expansion of the Dean of Student Office role in support of a wide range of student crises	DeCosta	Harkins	YES
Expand participation in Soar orientation programs by offering block scheduling.	Allen	Kaiwi-Lenting	YES
Create a model for a cross-cultural center that helps Cal Poly enroll diverse students and facilitates their successful degree completion	DeCosta	DeCosta	YES
Develop a unified approach to wellbeing on campus, including the visioning of appropriate facilities	Harris	See	YES
Develop successful party registration and management practices for clubs, organizations, fraternities and sororities	DeCosta	Mockford	YES
Implement and evaluate effectiveness of Cal Poly's response to off-campus violations that impact a student's health, wellness, and academic success	DeCosta	Hampton	YES
Develop a campus-wide approach to student leadership development that complements what exists in segmented areas around campus	DeCosta	Mockford	YES
Create programs to engage students their first year to help promote retention and achieve career goals, clarify major selection, develop career objectives, and create career development plans to help improve graduation rates	Shibata	Rinaldi or Hammond
Expand Career Services to increase access to services, offer extended hours, and bolster programs and support for each academic college	Shibata	Rinaldi	