FERPA Information

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 (the Buckley Amendment) is a United States federal law codified at 20 U.S.C. § 1232g, with implementing regulations in title 34, part 99 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The regulations provide that educational agencies and institutions that receive funding under a program administered by the U. S. Department of Education must provide students with access to their education records, an opportunity to seek to have the records amended, and some control over the disclosure of information from the records. With several exceptions, schools must have a student's consent prior to the disclosure of education records.

This page is provided as a means for students to give the Cal Poly Symphony, and the faculty who administer the ensemble, permission to view and utilize the information provided on the Audition Information Sheet (see reverse.) A signature below also indicates permission for the Cal Poly Symphony to utilize the student's full name, major, and hometown on printed program and publicity materials.

This written consent will be kept permanently on file. If, for any reason, a student decides to cancel this release, he/she must submit a letter withdrawing the consent and send or deliver the written notice to Dr. Arrivée (Room 128, Building 45, Cal Poly.)

Visual/Audio Image Release

I grant permission to California State University, its employees and agents, to take and use visual/audio images of me. Visual/audio images are any type of recording, including but not limited to photographs, digital images, drawings, renderings, voices, sounds, video recordings, audio clips or accompanying written descriptions. CSU will not materially alter the original images. I agree that CSU owns the images and all rights related to them. The images may be used in any manner or media without notifying me, such as university-sponsored websites, publications, promotions, broadcasts, advertisements, posters and theater slides, as well as for non-university uses. I waive any right to inspect or approve the finished images or any printed or electronic matter that may be used with them, or to be compensated for them.

I release CSU and its employees and agents, including any firm authorized to publish, broadcast and/or distribute a finished product containing the images, from any claims, damages or liability which I may ever have in connection with the taking or use of the images or printed material used with the images. I am at least 18 years of age and competent to sign this release (if not, see below). I have read this release before signing, I understand its contents, meaning and impact, and I freely accept the terms.
