

FEBRUARY

is the PERFECT TIME to GET

INVOLVED!

Need money or a resume-builder?

Do you need a job? The Veterans Success Center is looking for Student Assistants to hire! If you are a student at Cal Poly who receives Post-9/11 GI Bill benefits, then chances are, you are eligible to work at the Veterans Success Center. Not only is this a convenient on-campus job, but work hours are extremely flexible; we are more than willing to accommodate your academic schedule. Your job would consist of working with other employees on various tasks, including planning VSC events, updating the website, making flyers, and answering students' questions. If you are interested in working at the Veterans Success Center, please email us at veteranscenter@calpoly.edu for more information.

Student Veterans Organization Meeting Thursday

Come join us for our second SVO Meeting of the quarter, Thursday, February 16, at 11:10am in the Veterans Success Center (Building 52, Room E4). Even if you've never attended a meeting, now is the time to get involved! Stop by and see what the Student Veterans Organization is all about.

At our last SVO meeting on February 2, two representatives from Farm Credit West spoke to us about opportunities for veterans in Ag. If you are an Agribusiness major or have any interest in financial services, contact Ryan Hoffman, at Ryan.Hoffman@farmcreditwest.com.

Are you a leader?

Several of our Student Veterans Organization leaders are graduating this Spring, so we are looking to begin the transition of leadership earlier this year. If you have any interest in being a leader, we want to know!

If you are interested in becoming an SVO officer, let us know by filling out this form: <https://goo.gl/forms/OPYpZ0i1TYVQPEZM2>.

Remember, it is never too late to get involved! We are always excited to welcome new members to the SVO.

Get a Leg up on Apartment Rentals in SLO!

The Educated Renter's program is an online course that you can complete for a special certification that can give you an advantage when applying to rent apartments in San Luis Obispo. You can enroll in the program using this link: <http://www.ercp.calpoly.edu/content/enroll>

After you complete the certification, bring your certificate into the Veterans Success Center, along with your DD214 to prove your veteran status, and we can give your certificate a special stamp that can make you stand out even more in the application process. Finding housing in SLO is very competitive, so this is an excellent opportunity for Cal Poly veterans to make yourselves more marketable.

Volunteer Opportunity: Vet Net Ally Panel

We are looking for four student veterans to volunteer to speak on a panel for the upcoming Vet Net Ally session. The Vet Net Ally is a training program for Cal Poly faculty and staff to understand the best ways to work with their student veterans. The panel will take place on Wednesday, February 15 from 5-7 p.m. Please email veteranscenter@calpoly.edu if you are willing to volunteer to be on the panel.

A message from our SVO Events Coordinator,

Annika Yandell

Happy February from the VSC!

February is the month of kindness and camaraderie, so we have some great events in store that embody February's spirit. Our Vice President of Dependent Affairs, Ariel, is working on a donations drive for deployed service members, so keep an eye out for those details. The SVO is looking to do more social events, so let us know what sounds fun - personally, I had a great time at our Bowling Social!

Midterm season is upon us, which means that we need study groups more than ever. Come study at the VSC, where you can always expect free coffee and great company!

Hope to see you at our next SVO meeting,
Annika Yandell, VSC Events Coordinator

Quote of the Month

"Success isn't about the money you make;
it's about the difference you make in people's lives."
