

A photograph of a charming French courtyard. In the center is a large, ornate stone fountain with water spraying upwards. The courtyard is paved with cobblestones. Surrounding the fountain are several multi-story buildings with light-colored facades. The buildings on the left have many windows with white shutters and small balconies. The building on the right has large windows with blue frames and a prominent green double door. The sky is blue with some clouds.

MAKING LANGUAGES OUR BUSINESS: ADDRESSING FOREIGN LANGUAGE DEMAND AMONG U.S. EMPLOYERS

ACTFL and its Lead with Languages campaign, with the support of Pearson LLC and Language Testing International, commissioned Ipsos Public Affairs to conduct a survey of 1,200 U.S. employers, and the resulting 2019 report indicates an urgent and growing demand for language skills in the workplace. The report also suggests seven actionable recommendations that U.S. businesses may employ to fully leverage their employees' language assets and to contribute to fostering a robust future multilingual workforce to better thrive in our global economy.
